LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JAN. 2.

EASTERN STATES.

Murder at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 30.—Mrs. Weisert, who murdered her mother-in-law, Mrs. Klausser, last Sunday, by chopping her brains out with a hatchet, to-day had an examination in the County Court. Physicians thought the woman insane at the time she committed the deed, with hysterical mania from physical derangement. She was admitted to bail in the sum of $3,000.

The Wharton Case.

ANNAPOLIS, Dec. 30.—In the Wharton case to-day Professor McCullough was cross examined at length. He reiterated the statement made yesterday that he regarded the analysis of the contents of Ketcham's stomach made by Aiken and Tobey radically defective. Dr. Keath was examined and testified to the same effect.

Fire in a Virginia Coal Mine.

RICHMOND, Dec. 30.—On Tuesday last the Coverhill coal mines, in Chesterfield county, caught fire and still continue to burn. No persons were in the mine at the time. Seven mules in the pit were burned.

Indictments in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Fourteen additional indictments for bribery have been found against members of the last and present City Council. This makes eighteen indictments which have been found against twelve Aldermen and ex-Aldermen.

Small-Pox in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—The Health Officer reports two hundred and twenty-three deaths from small-pox during last week. The new remedy of sulphate of zinc and digitalis is reported being used with success.

There are one hundred and thirty cases of small-pox in Jersey City.

Rumored Outrage on an American Vessel.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—A St. Thomas letter mentions a rumor current that an American vessel, the Florida, has been captured by a Spanish man-of-war and taken to Porto Rico. The Florida left St. Thomas on the 14th and was taken shortly after her departure. The Spanish war steamer Nunez de Balboa, which followed close behind her, fired and brought her to almost in the presence of the U. S. sloop Shawmut. The news is confirmed by private dispatches, though the Tribune thinks that it should not be fully credited.

A Nassau special to the Times says the Florida arrived there on the 24th inst. with the loss of her foretopmast and was towed into port for repairs and coal. Nothing was said in the dispatch about her being fired into or captured by a Spanish cruiser.

New York News.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Yesterday the old Board of Aldermen assembled in the City Hall to wind up the affairs of the old year and re-organize. The newly elected Reform Board came to take possession of the City Chambers. The old Board, who were entitled to possession till 12 o'clock noon, opened, and after the transaction of the routine of business, received the report of the special committee to investigate the city and county accounts. The reports state that the committee have come to the conclusion that the facts brought to their knowledge and stated in the report of the Citizens' Committee condemning Mayor Hall, warrant that he be impeached by the Common Council.

The Mayor being vested with supervision of all Departments, is receiving periodical statements of accounts, and having authority to call for all information required, and being responsible for the proper management of the Departments, should be held to answer for frauds committed, and the committee recommends that he be impeached for malfeasance in office, for not properly discharging his duties and in the absence of any rule by the Common Pleas defining the mode of impeachment, the Committee recommend the passage of a resolution of impeachment, and the designation of counsel to prosecute the same in accordance with such rules as may be adopted by the Common Pleas.

The resolution of impeachment sets forth in extenso the charge of malfeasance and neglect against the Mayor; and a further resolution appoints as Corporation counsel, Charles O'Conor and John Hartley to prepare articles of impeachment for the same before the proper tribunal.

At one minute to twelve, Alderman Coman moved that the board adjourn sine die. At 12 o'clock the clerk then commenced to read the call for the reassembling of the board for the ensuing year. Just then a loud knocking was heard at the door, and the sergeant at-arms opened it cautiously, when admittance was demanded by Henry L. Clinton, a lawyer heading the new Board of Aldermen, and who said he had a writ ordering them to vacate the chambers for the Reform Board. The clamor at the door caused members to rush and assist the sergeant-at-arms. Among them was Jimmy Irving, ex Assemblyman, who expressed his intention to put a head on them. The door was slammed in the faces of Reformers. The clerk finished the reading of the call. Cowan was re-elected President for the coming year; the old clerk was re-appointed, and the board adjourned. The door was opened and the new board rushed in, and with them a small boy, who actively served the old board with the writ issued by Judge Brady. The Mayor, on arrival at the City Hall, commenced writing a document recognizing the old Board, when a member told him they had impeached him. Hall left the document unchanged, and issued another declaring the offices of Aldermen vacant, and appointing thereto the newly elected Aldermen and Assistant Aldermen. He also issued an address to the Court of Common Pleas objecting to their taking action on the resolution of impeachment, on the ground that when the resolution passed the Court had not prescribed any mode of proceeding with regard to the impeachment. The new Board organized with Vancer as chairman. All members were present except Cowan and Plunkett, who also belong to the old Board. At the new Board the Mayor presided, and administered the oath of office. The resolution of impeachment was then unanimously adopted. The resigned Board then resolved itself into the Board of Supervisors, the Mayor presiding. The action of the Board created great excitement. The impeachment of Hall was a surprise to Tammany and to the Mayor, but the latter says he retaliated effectually. It is not probable the new Board will do anything further concerning impeachment.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Jim Mace announces his willingness to fight any man in the world for $2,000, Ned O'Baldwin preferred.

During the present month it is expected that a vigorous assault will be made on the present Erie management. Gen. Sickles, who is still in the city, confers daily with Attorney General Barlow, with a view to perfecting arrangements for an attack by the Atlantic and Great Western and certain Erie stockholders upon Fisk and Gould and their associates, both in the Courts and Legislature. Sickles will attend exclusively to this latter in order, it is said, that he may, while annihilating Fisk and Gould, make combinations for the Senatorial contest.

The Republican Assembly caucus met yesterday and nominated Henry Smith, of Albany, for Speaker on an informal ballot, resulting in 50 for Smith and 47 for Alvord; and on the latter's motion, Smith's nomination was made unanimous. Smith's nomination is regarded as a triumph of the Administration. The Republican Senatorial caucus nominated Jas. Terwilliger for Clerk. The Democratic Assembly caucus nominated John P. Jacobs for Speaker.

Secretary Fish About to Resign.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—The morning papers say that Secretary Fish's resignation is once more on the tapis, and in a more tangible shape than ever. In fact his final resignation in a day or two is no more a matter of conjecture, but an almost certainty. The difficulty lately arisen between the United States and Spain with regard to Cuban and other matters has matured his resolution to withdraw as soon as possible from affairs which threaten to assume a black and stormy aspect. Secretary Fish, while in this city, was interviewed by a reporter last evening. In answer to a question the Secretary said: I am annoyed about the recall of the Spanish Minister. He knows the Spaniards, and there is no better man than Senor Roberts. He has been invariably courteous and kind. Whenever he possibly could he advocated a humane policy in Cuba, and endeavored to mitigate the severity of Spanish rule in that island. Spain has never sent a better representative to Washington than Senor Roberts. He did not wish to say anything about it at present but the facts would soon be made known.

Connolly Procures Bail.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—The requisite amount of bail being ready Controller Connolly will probably be released to-morrow.

Extensive Fire in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 31.—At eleven o'clock last night a fire was discovered in Sanders saloon. The flames spread rapidly, and in four hours sixty buildings were burned. The burnt district includes the wealthiest portion of the city, from Court House Square to Desard street, embracing two squares from Desang street down along the river front to and including Sanders saloon and store. From the river to McKenna's saloon and along the side of Desard street not a house was left standing. The buildings destroyed were the Union Church, McCormick's, offices, shops, residences and out-buildings; the fine stores of Hoffman, Gensen, Deyens, Meyer, Sanders, McAfee, Oliver and King; the old Nebraska Mansion House, Central House, Keller's new store, Endorm's shop, stables and store; the old Alhambra, six law offices and many other buildings are entirely destroyed. Total loss, $580,000; insurance $303,000. The origin of the fire is believed to have been accidental.

Enslavement of Chinese in Cuba.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—A World correspondent writing from Havana on the 23d, says that the Captain-General of Cuba has just decreed the practical enslavement of the whole Chinese population of the island of Cuba—some 35,000 souls. The decree orders the 10,000 or 15,000 free Chinese to immediately enroll themselves under the tutelage of the Government and work in the Government workshops, receiving for their labor only $4 per month, and considering that all the Chinese who are now under contract shall be re-indentured on the expiring of their terms or be sent to jail.

Alexis Goes on a Buffalo Hunt.

CHICAGO, Dec. 31.—The Grand Duke Alexis has decided to go on a long buffalo hunt after leaving here.

The Grand Duke will visit Milwaukie, St. Louis, Kansas City and Leavenworth as heretofore announced, and from the latter place will go to Omaha, arriving there on the 10th of January. Gen. Sheridan will receive them, and with proper military escort, conduct them to the hunting grounds. On arriving there, should snow be found too deep for hunting, the party will go through to San Francisco. The Grand Duke passed to-day very quietly. There being no Greek Church in the city, he did not attend public worship.

Treasure-trove at Chicago.

Workmen engaged in removing the ruins of Pacific Hotel, found, a few feet below the surface, an iron bound box containing $20,000 in gold, silver and nickle coin. The presence of the latter indicates a comparatively recent burial, but so far there is not the slightest clue to the owner of the treasure.

CUBA.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—A Havana correspondent of the Herald writes that the whole charge against Dr. Howard was that made in 1864. He sold two cases of homœpathic medicines to Senor Bueyon, then a Spanish official. Bueyon subsequently joined the insurrection and the boxes which had Howard's name on them were captured in one of the camps of the revolutionists. Howard's sentence of confiscation of his property and eight years in the chain gang has not yet been approved by the Captain General, and it is hoped that the efforts of the United States Government in his behalf will prove successful and he be released.

The Havana students are still in the chain-gang, but strong efforts are being made for their release, or at least a mitigation of their punishment.

MEXICO.

The Rebellion.

MATAMORAS, Dec. 30.—The revolution is advancing into the State of Tamaulipas. Insurgent forces appeared before General Cortinas' troops and fell back on Camargo. It is supposed they will entrench and fight.

Vessels Foundered.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 30.—The Russian steamship Kunit, plying on the Caspean Sea foundered in a terrible gale and all on board were drowned. The steamer had a million rubles in treasure on board.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—The ship Edward foundered off Falmouth yesterday and all on board were lost. No particulars.

Explosion at Glasgow.

GLASGOW, Dec. 30.—While a large road wagon, propelled by steam and carrying heavy boilers, was passing through the streets to-day, followed by a throng of children, the boiler exploded. Five were killed and seven wounded. The dead and injured were frightfully mutilated.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—The Prince of Wales continues to improve. The Queen's visit to Sandringham was not caused by the appearance of any dangerous symptoms.

French Affairs.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—The Assembly yesterday, after debate, voted an increase of circulation of the Bank of France to 400,000,000 francs and adjourned until the 3d of January.

Thiers, in alluding to the violent language used by Deputies, provoked by threats of Germans, said silence was the best reply to the harsh words of Bismarck. This was received with prolonged applause.

Thiers expressed determined opposition to burdening the present fiscal year with loans.

The New York Thieves.

The New York Tribune of December 13th, repeats its narration concerning Connolly's attempted compromise, as follows:

In order that all doubts may be set at rest on this matter, we will add that the following facts are undeniable: Mr. Connolly's friends were prepared to pay $1,000,000; he was to give information which would complete the chain of evidence against the rest of the ring, and escape to Havana; and he would unquestionably have slipped away had not Mr. Charles O'Conor, active in the true interests of the tax-payers, demanded that all the property which once was Connolly's, but which had been illegally transferred to others, be deeded in trust to him, pending action in the matter. Commodore Garrison believed, and we can imagine believed conscientiously, that $1,000,000 of the stolen funds might be saved to the tax-payers by compromise; Mr. O'Conor thinks the whole $6,312,000 can be recovered by the prosecution of Connolly and the rest.

Here are a few scraps of news respecting the Catholic conflict in Europe, and showing the progress of the Dollinger movement: The Swiss Council of States have suppressed all out door religious ceremonies and processions. The people of Cologne, regarded as a pre-eminently Catholic city, have rejected the Ultramontane candidates for the town Council and returned Liberals, who will grant the anti-Catholics a church. The Archbishop of Munich, while banning parish priests in small Bavarian towns who refused to accept the decrees of the Vatican Council, has been withstood to the face by the offending parties and hooted by the people.

The Woman's Club of Washington City have petitioned the District Legislature to pass a law recognizing cohabitation as marriage. The ladies composing the club believe that this will put an end to the social evil in the District. There is food for reflection in this remarkable proposition, and should it be made a law there will be some men in that city who will awake some fine morning to realize that they are most fearfully and wonderfully married.

A change is proposed in the rates of representation of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, so as to give two Commissioners—a minister and an elder—for every 3,000 communicants or fraction thereof. This would make the assembly consist of 346 deputies.

The Superintendent of Police says that five hundred men, women and children go every fine day into the streets of New York city for the purpose of stealing whatever they can lay their hands on, the aptitude of many of whom is glossed over with the good dress and good manners of lady and gentlemanhood.

What a shoddy world is this in which we live. It has recently been ascertained that ordinary leather is largely sold as alligator leather, being stamped to resemble the skin of that animal; and now an indignant gentleman writes a newspaper that genuine mattrass curled hair is made from whalebone finely shaved!

The French manufacturers are suffering for their precipitancy. In the heat of the war they declared they would never execute orders for Germans. Latterly they have, as usual, sent their commercial travelers into Germany, and they find that the articles which they formerly imported from France are now produced in Germany in equal elegance and not inferior quality.

The Supreme Court of Illinois having decided that special assessments for extending, widening or paving streets are unconstitutional, the property-owners must assume the responsibility of making improvements of this character, as cities can neither make special assessments nor incur debt for that purpose. This decision occasions the municipal government of Chicago considerable embarrassment.

Letters patent have recently been granted for the invention of an improved railroad car for the transportation of grain. By this invention the grain is discharged in from three to thirty minutes, a great saving in time over the present process. One man can attend to the unloading of ten cars, and discharge their contents as quickly as four men can unload one of the cars now used to carry grain.

It is decidedly singular that the letter M is not only the initial in the words "music" and "melody," but is also the first letter of a great number of the names of ancient and modern composers; for example, Marcelo, Monsigny, Mehul, Mozart, Martini, Mercadante, Meupon, Meyerbeer, Malibran, Mayseider, Mme. Musard, Masini, Maillart, Mendelsson, Musse, Moscheilles, Membre, Marmet, etc.

One hundred and twenty millions tons of coal were taken out of the British coal fields last year, representing the exhaustion of a seam six feet thick, over an area of twenty thousand acres. It is manifest that at this rate of consumption any coal beds not practically limitless in extent must be exhausted within a term of years not difficult to compute. Even now the principal workings have been carried so far below the surface that the nation has begun to fear that the day when its coal mines shall be exhausted may not be far distant.

The Chicago Times says: "In reviewing the character and condition of the dry goods trade, we hazard nothing in the statement that the movement in both domestic and foreign fabrics was larger than ever before witnessed at this season of the year. Our newly organized jobbing houses were largely patronized by buyers in person from all sections of the country." It is evident that the Chicago people are rapidly nearing the state of positive belief that the fire was a blessing in addition to the fact that it has insured the city perpetual fame.

A party of wits once stopped at a tavern. When the feast was over, one of the members called on the hostess. "Angelique," he said, "I am going to give you a lesson in astronomy. Have you not heard of the great Platonic year, when everything must return to its former condition? Know, then, that in sixteen thousand years we shall be here again, on the same day, and at the same hour. Will you give us credit till then?" The hostess, however, had her reply. "I am perfectly willing," she retorted, "but it is just sixteen thousand years since you were here before and you left without paying; settle the old score, and I will trust you on the new."

We have before alluded to the discussion going on in the Virginia papers with regard to the re-union of Eastern and Western Virginia. A paper somewhere in the mountains, called the Moundsville National, dispels all hope of such a consummation, however, in the following vigorous style: "Too late! You might as well attempt to dam up the waters of the Ohio with willows, as to attempt to fetter the onward steps of the grand Commonwealth of West Virginia. The days of this Virginia wildcat are numbered. Her claws are all torn off, and she has unceremoniously crawled back into her hole to suck her sore paws through all eternity."

While the Japanese are so busily engaged just now in adopting "Yankee notions"—including greenbacks and fractional currency—it is suggested that we might with profit adopt some of their customs. As, for instance, in Japan the ferrymen are held responsible for the safety of their passengers, and if one of these is drowned the ferryman is in duty bound to drown with him or commit harikari on the instant. If he does neither the Government very considerately relieves him of his head. The adoption of this principle with respect to railway passenger traffic in this country would probably have the effect of considerably lessening the number of accidents.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON COUNTY.

HILLSBORO, Jan. 3, 1872.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

SIR: Washington county seems to have waked up within the last year, and gone to work in earnest. Besides the many improvements now in operation, she is looking forward to others of equal importance. The building of a steam flour and saw-mill at this place, is to be followed closely by a similar enterprise at Forest Grove; and another is to be erected, we understand, at Mr. S. Reed's Station in the Robinson prairie. Besides these improvements, which are of vital importance to the county, the P. T. Co. have, we understand, settled their difficulty with the county in relation to the Scholl bridge, and in a short time will be running regular trips. We also understand that they have decided to build a twenty ton boat to run the tributaries of the Tualatin, carrying freight to Portland for $2 per ton, running their own boat from Portland to Oswego. Mr. Trullinger will erect a commodious warehouse at Centerville in connection with his flouring mill, and will give to the farmers of Centerville and Dairy Creek a better price for their produce than any other shipping point can afford to give. Forest Grove will stand an equal chance, the river being an equal distance from the proposed line of railroad. Warehouses, we understand, are to be erected along the Tualatin river proper, and parties will be ready by another harvest to pay cash for wheat and oats. Arrangements are being made by a steam mill company to build in the vast ash and oak groves along the banks of the Tualatin steam saw mills, which will be a trade of itself. This, together with the immense water privileges and mineral products at Oswego, which are to be brought in by eastern capital, give promise to stockholders in the Tualatin P. T. and Manufacturing Co. a rich harvest.

The M. E. Church at this place was dedicated yesterday by Rev. Mr. Izer. The house was well filled, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The following is the exhibit of the Treasurer:

Cost of Church	$3,000
Amount paid up to dedication	2,400
Leaving a debt of	$ 600
Accruing debt for sidewalks and fence	200
Total indebtedness	$ 800
Amount due on subscription	$104 00
raised on day of dedication	780 20
Total	$884 20

It will be seen from the above table that there is at present in the Treasury, after paying all indebtedness, the sum of $84 20.

The Trustees, on behalf of the Church, desire to return their heartfelt thanks to all who have subscribed their means for the building of this Church, and also to the liberal donations received from Portland, as well as those who are not members of any church.

We had no mails from the South yesterday on account of high water.

Speedy and radical cure of Nasal Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis and Affections of the Lungs, and all complaints that lead to Consumption. All who are suffering from Catarrh in the Head—that loathsome disease so prolific of evil consequences—can be speedily and permanently cured if they apply for treatment in [illegible]. There are thousands of cases of throat disease, bronchitis and consumption due solely to catarrh, to say nothing of its less terrible consequences, impaired sense of hearing, smell, taste and sight, the loss of hair and teeth, the disgusting effluvia of the breath, the dingy complexion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, etc. These are in numberless cases, caused solely by catarrh in the head. The disease affects thousands who have never suspected its presence. Its symptoms are so diverse in different individuals as to often mislead the sufferer and his medical adviser. The only safe and proper course is to have an examination from a physician competent to make a correct diagnosis and to cure the evil when found to exist. Dr. Aborn cures this loathsome disease after the ordinary modes of treatment have failed.

Territorial Expansion.

It has been conceded by journals of British Columbia that the speedy construction of the Dominion Pacific railway was the only thing which could prevent the British Possessions on the Pacific from union with the United States. The prospect of the completion of this road is very remote. Difficulties of great magnitude are to be encountered. The construction of the road, in short, is yet problematical. And even if it should be constructed, it may be doubted whether British Columbia would not then be more fortunate if her political destinies were joined with those of the United States.

The people of the United States, on their part, are now neither afraid of territorial extension nor greedy for their neighbors' possessions. Thirty or fifty years ago the consequences of territorial expansion by the United States were looked upon by a very large body of the people of this country with feelings of grave uneasiness. The acquisition of the vast Louisiana Territory, while giving to the Republic the States of Louisiana, Arkansas and Missouri, was considered still an element of great weakness that, in time, would result in disintegration. Since those days, the territory has been partitioned into the additional States of Iowa, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska, Nevada and Oregon, and into the Territories of Dacotah, Colorado, Utah, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming and Washington, together with the Indian Territory of the Cherokees, Chickasaws and Choctaws. Since those days, too, Texas has been annexed, and California, with the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona, acquired. That the new States and Territories, including even Texas and Utah, have been sources of weakness, no one will contend to-day. On the contrary, they have, one and all, it will be conceded, been, in their coherency with the older portion of the country, elements of additional strength. As with a monarchy, so with a Republic—the more expanded the limits and the more populous the tracts which they embrace, the more powerful the Government. Small States are of little importance to the world at large; large nations are generally an aggregation of diminutive independencies into one whole. The more small independencies that are absorbed, the more formidable the single nationality. So it has invariably been with all of the Great Powers of Europe, France, Great Britain, Russia, Prussia, Austria, Spain, Italy—all are composed of fragments that once were nationalities by themselves. Even distant Colonies have added to the strength of such Powers as have acquired them. The Colonies may not be profitable, in some instances, to the parent Government, but their consequence in a military point of view cannot be questioned. The United States have no Colonies, but, as a nation, are composed of the thirteen original independent sovereignties federated into one, together with the extensive tracts purchased from France, Spain, Russia and Mexico, and the country conquered from Mexico. All the territory that the United States have thus far acquired, either by purchase or conquest, has been of material advantage to the nation equally in a commercial, military and political sense. That the country would be weakened by a further expansion, no one, judging from the results of past experience, will at this late day hold.

The Mint Report.

Accompanying the report of the Secretary of the Treasury is the report of the Director of the Mint. This report covers the operations of the mint and its branches for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1871. From the statistics presented, we learn that the deposits of bullion for the year represented a total value of $43,030,184, of which $37,054,202 were gold and $5,975,982 silver. Deducting from the total the re-deposits, or bars made at one branch of the mint and deposited in another for recoinage, the deposits amounted to $39,137,404. The production of the mint for the year was as follows: Gold coin, 1,120,916 pieces, valued at $21,302,437; unparted and fine gold in bars, $13,101,088; silver coin, 3,664,792 pieces, valued at $1,955,905; silver bars, $3,544,180; nickel, copper and bronze pieces, 11,672,750, valued at $283,760. Total coinage, $40,187,409. During the year a bullion fund has been provided, and full authority has been given to melt, assay and stamp gold and silver bullion and return the same to depositors in unparted bars, bearing the Government stamp of weight and fineness. This has largely increased the business of the mint and added greatly to its usefulness. The capacity of the mint and such of its branches as are now in operation is deemed more than sufficient to meet all demands for the conversion of gold and silver into coin, and it is argued that no necessity will exist for an increase of facilities until specie shall again enter into general circulation. The Director takes a hopeful view of mining operations, and expresses the belief that the bullion production of the United States will double within the next ten years.

About Potatoes.

We wonder what citizen of Oregon can read the following, which we take from the Statesman, without being disgusted with the negligence and improvidence of Oregon agriculturists? For two or three years Oregon has been depending on California for so common a vegetable as the potato. How many years more will this be the case? Talk about progress, prosperity and industrial growth when, forsooth, we can't produce our own potatoes:

Oregonians will be surprised to learn the extent of our trade at the present time in vegetables brought from the "famine stricken fields of California." About all the supply we have of potatoes comes from that State, and we learned the other day from Mr. Daniel Lower, of Portland, that he has shipped potatoes to all parts of the Wallamet valley, in Yamhill and Washington counties and as far south as the Umpqua, and each steamer brings many other vegetables. A schooner load of potatoes, about ninety tons, is said to be on the way from Humbolt to Portland. In about two months more California will be able to ship us new potatoes, which is some satisfaction. It really does look as if Oregon should raise her own vegetables, and the way to do it should be a study for our agriculturists.

The San Francisco Commercial Herald thinks that the administration has been peculiarly fortunate in its selections for the high and important offices of Ministers to China and Japan, and says that both Frederick F. Low and Charles E. De Long have done much to raise the reputation of this country in the estimation of the people as well as of the Governments to which they are accredited.

On arriving at Salem last week Samuel E. May was placed in jail. On Monday last Justice Murphy issued an order for his release from confinement, Messrs. J. L. Parrish, Jacob Conser, S. B. Knox and P. D. Palmer becoming sureties for his appearance at the next term of Court.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JAN. 3.

EASTERN STATES.

Rape and Riot at Rochester, N. Y.

ROCHESTER, Jan. 2.—A mob attempted to break into the jail where the negro ravisher of the little girl Mort is confined, but were prevented by the police. There is great excitement.

LATER.—The excitement over the rape of the little girl by the negro Howard, finally culminated in blood. An immense crowd surrounded the jail this evening, who were frantic over the report that the child had died from the injuries received. The evening papers published evidence against Howard conclusive of his guilt. The police surrounded the jail and the military assembled at the armory. The police finally dispersed the crowd; and quiet being apparently restored, they were finally relieved. At a later period a crowd again surrounded the jail, yelling and shooting, and the police were again sent for. In the meantime the military arrived on the ground, and at about 10 P. M. while the crowd were yelling at the corner of Court and Exchange streets, the military fired a volley into them, killing two men named John Etlor and Henry Merlow and a boy whose name has not been learned, and wounding John Helbert. It is reported that a woman is also shot, but this is unfounded. The excitement then redoubled and people rushed from all parts of the city to the scene. The crowd persist that the firing was unnecessary, while the military declare that they were obliged to shoot in self-defense, as they were being pelted with stones. From the testimony of the police, who were witnesses of the affair, the statement of the military appears to be untrue. The men killed were mere spectators, and not participating with the mob. Helbert was a highly respected and influential German citizen. The feeling against the military is intense, and it is feared there will be more bloodshed before morning. The colored people are fleeing from their houses, as it is not deemed safe for them to be seen on the streets. The policemen are being drawn in from the outer districts of the city and are placed around the jail.

ROCHESTER, Jan. 2, 11 P. M.—There does not seem to be any movement for a further attack on the jail. Five companies of militia are now guarding it and the streets leading there, too. In addition to those previously reported killed, John Nolan is fatally wounded and E. S. Martin is reported to have died from a wound received. The Captain of the military disavows giving orders to fire, and says the order was to "charge bayonets," and in this movement guns were discharged.

ROCHESTER, Jan. 3.—The city is comparatively quiet this morning. Four military companies are guarding the jail with loaded cannon placed so as to command the bridges. There is a good deal of hooting at the military. At half past eleven some one placed a flag on a canal boat on the slip in Court street. Gen. Clarke took it down, when the crowd rushed upon him. For a short time he was in peril, but was released. The Sheriff has ordered six military companies more. Trouble is feared. The authorities are determined to defend the jail, but they wish the negro Howard out of it.

The Mob Repulsed.

ROCHESTER, Jan. 3.—The negro Howard has been indicted.

The police in a body made a charge on the mob gathered in the vicinity of the jail, driving them through the streets in every direction. Several soldiers who stepped out of line this afternoon were knocked down by ruffians.

It was thought that Howard would be taken into court this afternoon, but the Judge of Oyer and Terminer will not consent until it is determined whether his victim will recover or not. Judge Smith and the County Judge have directed the Sheriff not to take Howard from the jail at present, and to protect and preserve public property at all hazards. Howitzers have been removed to position where they will command exchange and approaches from east side of the river more effectually.

LATER.—At midnight all was quiet, and no further disturbance is anticipated during the night.

It is said that other vessels are to go to the Cuban coast, and the commanders are ordered to give protection to such Americans as have incurred the displeasure of Spanish volunteers.

The run on the Third Avenue Savings Bank lasted all day. Three hundred thousand dollars have thus far been paid out, and there is $500,000 cash on hand, while one million of securities can be converted into cash in a day.

The Commissioner of Public Works, Van Nort, to-day discharged six General Superintendents of Sewers and a number of other officials, reducing the expenses of the Department thus far $90,000 per annum.

Detectives were called in and the man, who gave his name as Horace Corp, was arrested.

Gen. Sickles arrived here to-night.

New York Legislature.

ALBANY, Jan. 2.—The House and Senate met at 11 o'clock to-day.

The Governor's Message was long and devoted to matters connected with the State and city of New York. It is stated that the State debt has been reduced to $29,000,000, and the tolls from the canals increased nearly $500,000 over the previous year. It recommends a new charter for New York city, the suggestions for which are generally similar to that proposed by the Committee of Seventy. He refrains from the discussion of Federal matters, as the Legislature and Governor differ politically, but he hopes to work harmoniously with it in dealing with home affairs.

Tweed did not appear at the Senate to-day.

The Governor sent a special message to the Legislature to-day on the financial condition of the city of New York, in which he stated on the authority of David A. Wells, who had investigated the matter by request of the Governor, that the entire debt of the city is about $100,000,000, or five per cent. of the estimated total actual valuation of real estate which is placed at $2,000,000,000.

Tweed has not appeared here.

The Senate ratified the 15th amendment by 27 against 1.

Governor, the vote in the Senate being a tie. Governor Hayes delivered his message, which was short and mainly given to the financial condition of the affairs of the State, which were pronounced satisfactory. He recommends the creation of a commission consisting of five citizens, including the Railroad Commissioners, who shall be empowered to investigate the affairs and status of the railroad companies of the State, showing their legal rights and the rights of the State and its citizens.

In response to a speech of welcome by the President, he expressed his gratification at the cordiality of his reception in Chicago, and the hope that the once beautiful city will soon regain its former magnificence. He goes to Milwaukee to-night, and returns here Thursday.

The Wharton Murder Trial.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 2.—In the Wharton murder trial Dr. Reese was again on the stand to-day, and read his former statements of his belief in the defectiveness of proofs of Atkins and Toney's tests for antimony, and said that judging from all the evidence he thought Ketchum's death the result of natural causes. The cross examination failed to shake his testimony of anything new.

SPRINGFIELD (Mass.), Jan. 2.—A. Crocker, of Fitchburg, was to-day elected to Congress in place of Washburn, resigned.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 3.—In the Wharton case to-day, cross-examination of Dr. Reese was concluded. Nothing new was elicited. Dr. E. Warren, of Baltimore, Medical Inspector of Gen. Lee's army during the war, was examined. He had heard all the testimony except that of Dr. Miles, and of that he had read a report viewing symptoms of the post mortem examination separately or combined, he could see nothing to warrant the conclusion that other than perfectly natural causes produced Gen. Ketchum's death. He had seen men die as suddenly, and with the identical symptoms, from a brain spinal disease, as that has prevailed as an epidemic in Baltimore for the last twelve months. Court then adjourned.

New Hampshire Politics.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 3.—The Republican State Convention assembled to-day. A large number of delegates were present. President Benton, in his address, compliments the administration of President Grant.

New Hampshire Republican Convention

CONCORD, Jan. 3.—The Republican State Convention met to-day.

Resolutions were adopted eulogizing the Republican party as a party of progress and declaring that its mission is not yet ended. They affirm that the success of the Administration in the reduction of the debt and the settlement of the Alabama claims deserves the commendation of all Republicans. They hold the Democratic party responsible for the war and its consequent expenses, and declare all taxation to be just and must be equal to all. They urge the abolition of the franking privilege, and favor honest economy, retrenchment and reform, and endorse the Administration of Gen. Grant and propose his re-election in 1872.

E. Straw was nominated for Governor, and Albert Twitchell for Railroad Commissioner.

Senator Wilson addressed the Convention, fully endorsing the Administration of Grant as honest, patriotic and economical. He declared that he knew, with two or three exceptions, had received no presents since being sworn into office.

The Convention then adjourned.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Additional Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Judge Cochrane, late Chief Justice of Georgia, and one of the most prominent Southern Republicans, had a long interview with the President yesterday. He says that the Administration will not interfere in the present affairs of Georgia, and as Governor Conley personally cares nothing for the office, there will be no contest between him and the Governor elect concerning it.

The Secretary of the Treasury has authorized the Assistant Treasurer in New York to sell $1,600,000 gold on the 2d and 4th Thursday, and to purchase $1,000,000 in bonds on the 1st and 3d Thursday during the month of January.

The Secretary of the Treasury will shortly issue a circular containing new and more stringent rules for the keeping and disbursing of the public monies by Government officials, which supercede those previously issued upon this subject.

The Interior Department is the authority for the statement that nothing appears upon the records in connection with or implicating Senator Harlan with the frauds charged against J. W. Wright in payment of Indian pensions or bounty claims.

It is understood when it was ascertained that Catacazy had been definitely recalled, the President directed that the Grand Duke be invited to revisit Washington. This invitation he necessarily declined, from the exigencies connected with the service of the Russian squadron.

News from Paris.

PARIS, Jan. 3.—M. Vautrain has written a letter accepting the nomination to the Assembly from the Radical party of Paris. While he declares his belief that a Republic alone can save France, he refuses to place the Republic above universal suffrage; this reservation has given offense to some of the journals which first proposed his candidacy. They reproach him for the stand he has taken and withdraw their support.

Dispatches from Marseilles report the presence of Gambetta in the city a cause of much agitation and some disorder. His hotel was surrounded yesterday by friends, who endeavored to call him out. The assemblage became numerous and so turbulent that the troops were ordered to the scene, and some chasseurs charged upon the crowd and dispersed it. Gambetta is not allowed by the police to leave his hotel from fear that his appearance might lead to further disturbance. He advises his friends not to persist in collecting in large bodies in the streets or attempt any resistance to the authorities. He tells them they have a right to hold meetings, but they should withdraw in the presence of an armed force and not provoke a collision. He remains at the hotel, and it is given out that he is confined to his room by illness.

The Times believes that the American Government has no intention to make exorbitant demands for indemnity at the Geneva Tribunal; that the main desire is to gain public acknowledgement of the correctness of its positions during the war. The Times also says that it is undesirable to encourage the bringing of extravagant claims against neutrals.

The Cologne Gazette asserts the United States claims are enormous in their amount for indemnity, in order that when deductions are made they may receive a handsome sum.

The Gazette denounces this as a fitful and unworthy trick, but is not sorry that the only two nations which furnished supplies to France during the war with Germany, are not similarly set by the ears.

There is considerable talk here of transferring the property and the control of the Atlantic Cable to the joint governments of Great Britain and the United States. The proposition is received with favor, and that it may result in a reduction of the exorbitant tariff rates.

Business in London Stock Exchange yesterday exceeded in amount that of any day within the last 40 years.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—This evening in apparent contradiction to the statement already telegraphed, that the German authorities have ordered the trial of hostages in France, a special dispatch to the Standard says the Germans have suddenly evinced moderation, and questions arising from the assassination of Bavarian soldiers in France will be settled without resort to vigorous measures.

The Queen having returned to Windsor, the town Council presented her an address of congratulation upon the convalescence of the Prince of Wales and praying for his speedy return to full health.

CITY.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—The only information in regard to the doings of the Democratic State Central Committee, that we could obtain on Monday evening, was picked up from current report. We have, now, from the Herald some further particulars. We find that eight counties only were represented by the regular committeemen. Six counties were represented by proxy, and seven counties were not represented at all, till the Committee appointed proxies for some of them. Dr. McCoy was admitted from Baker county, and the Committee appointed J. H. Reed, of this city, to represent Tillamook. Wm. Thompson, proxy for Lafayette Lane, of Douglas county, was elected Secretary of the Committee. It was resolved that each county shall be entitled to at least one delegate in the State Convention. The vote for Governor at the last election was taken as the basis of representation. The ratio of representation was fixed at one hundred Democratic votes cast for Governor, with one delegate for each fraction of fifty or over. The 10th day of April was the day, but the published proceedings do not show that any place was designated for holding the convention. The Committee recommended the several counties to hold their precinct meetings on the 16th and their county convention on the 23d of March. A resolution was adopted recommending the organization of Democratic Clubs in all the precincts of the State. The several counties, on the basis adopted, will be entitled to delegates as follows: Baker, 6; Benton, 6; Clackamas, 7; Clatsop, 1; Columbia, 2; Coos, 3; Curry, 1; Douglas, 8; Grant, 4; Jackson, 8; Josephine, 2; Lane, 8; Linn, 12; Marion, 11; Multnomah, 10; Polk, 7; Tillamook, 1; Umatilla, 5; Union, 4; Washington, 4; Wasco, 3; Yamhill, 6.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENT.—The remains of Capt. Wm. Kelly are expected to arrive on the Oriflamme. In view of this, arrangements have been made for the obsequies, as follows: The burial, at Vancouver, will be in charge of the Masonic and Odd Fellows fraternities. Meantime, upon the arrival of the steamer, the body will be received by the Hibernian Benevolent Society of this city and taken to the Emmet Guard Armory where it will lie in state till the societies interested shall be ready to accompany it to Vancouver. The Hibernian Benevolent Society held a meeting on Monday evening, and appointed the following gentlemen a delegation to receive and take charge of the remains: Messrs. Joe Reilly, Thos. Kearney, E. Cahalin, Jas. Carroll, M. Glenson, P. Callahan, Frank Gatens and P. Clyne. The society will turn out and accompany the funeral party to Vancouver. The Vancouver Hibernian Benevolent Society, of which Capt. Kelly was a member, will participate in the ceremonies. It cannot be announced, now, at what time the boat will leave here for Vancouver, but it is intended to start the next morning after the arrival of the Oriflamme. Due notice will, however, be given.

A CASE OF MARITIME LAW.—The ship Windward arrived here two or three days ago, after a disastrous voyage from San Francisco, the ship being in a badly damaged condition. The Captain notified the consignees that they would be required to sign a general average bond, and take their freight as placed upon the wharf. On Monday there was considerable having around, the ship having commenced to discharge. It transpired yesterday that several of the consignees had refused, under advice of insurance agents, to sign the bond. There will be a case, of course, in the courts, to determine who is and who is not liable for damage to the ship. The insurance agents hold that as the tug-boat towed the Windward only to Sand Island and there left her, and that, in consequence of her exposed situation there she received the damage, the owners of the tug boat are responsible for the total damage.

ICE IN THE COLUMBIA.—The Vancouver went down into the Columbia river yesterday, and up to prospect the ice gorge. The ice was found gorged about two miles above the mouth of the Wallamet, being on the Washington Territory side from four to six feet thick. On the Oregon side there is a sand bar upon which the ice has been piled up, in places, fifteen or twenty feet high. We hear from Vancouver that about two miles above Vancouver, and from that point up as far as can be seen the river is wholly free of ice. From recent appearances it will be several days yet before the gorge will break up. Meantime the Vancouver will make daily trips to the Washington Territory shore. She will leave at 7 o'clock this morning, and, until the ice breaks up will make trips leaving the Columbia at half past 9 A. M. and and returning, leaving this city at 3 P. M.

ONE OF THE "BALE OLD KIND."—Early yesterday a dense fog settled upon the city and the Wallamet river. It was so thick that lights had to be used in many of the business houses as early as the middle of the afternoon. Objects a block or two away were most of the time undistinguishable. When the train passed down Fourth street at 5 o'clock it was invisible to persons less than a block away. The Fannie Troup came up, arriving about 6 o'clock. A passenger informs us that they entered the fog bank a few miles below the city, and that it was nearly dense enough to tie up to. When just below the Bone Yard the pilot, being unable to see either shore or any light, stopped the boat and lay on the current for some time, being totally at a loss which way to go. The fog was the densest of the season, and was a regular tramp compared with all ordinary fogs of this country.

FERRY BOAT IN THE FOG.—Yesterday the Stark street ferry boat was one of the sufferers by the fog which settled over the river. Starting from the other shore, she got lost and ran down to the O. S. N. Co's wharf when she collided with the Hayward, which was tied up to the dock. The ferry boat got the worst of it, decidedly, having her wheel house carried clean away. Getting clear of the Hayward, the ferry boat floated off down stream, much at the mercy of the current, till she got below the steamship dock. Getting control of herself again, she started on her laborious way back to Stark street. From the time she left East Portland, it was nearly an hour before the passengers got ashore, and then they landed at one of the lower wharves.

FALLS ENCAMPMENT.—On Monday evening, Mr. A. L. Stinson, R. W. Deputy Grand Patriarch, instituted at Oregon City Falls Encampment No. 4, and installed the following officers: J. M. Bacon, C. P.; A. Noltner, H. P.; S. Ackerman, S. W.; Geo. A. Pease, Scribe; Thomas Charman, Treasurer; Wm. P. Burns, J. W. After the installation was over, the members and invited guests, of which there were quite a number from this city, sat down to a sumptuous lunch, set out by the members of the new "camp." We hear that the occasion was an exceedingly pleasant one, and that the new Encampment starts out under excellent auspices.

REBEKAH DEGREE BALL.—The Committee of Invitation have already commenced issuing invitations for the ball to take place on the 18th inst. We are requested to state that it is the intention of the Committee to invite all Odd Fellows, and that if any should be overlooked, it will not be intentional. Odd Fellows wishing to invite their friends, not members, will please hand the names of such persons to the Invitation Committee. The members of sister lodges will be invited through their Secretaries. The Committee of Invitation consists of Madame Wilcox, Potter, Wetsell, Young, Hicks and Hoffman.

TURN VEREIN ELECTION.—The Turn Verein Society held an election on Sunday for officers for the ensuing year, resulting in the choice of the following named persons: C. A. Alisky, Speaker; Peter Wagner, 1st Secretary; A. Legrand, 2d Secretary; A. Miller, 1st Turn Ward; G. Gastendelk, 2d Turn Ward; F. Lutz and — Pilkmann, Property Wards; C. C. Bauo, A. Koestel and F. Eidus, Trustees.

SMOKE ALARM.—About 4 o'clock yesterday morning, the guests at the Cosmopolitan Hotel had a first class sensation. They were aroused by a dense smoke and for a few minutes there was a lively "hurrying to and fro." The cause of it was, however, soon discovered to be a defective flue; there was no fire except in the stoves where it ought to be, and peace was soon again restored.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—In this court, yesterday, Judge Deady directed the entry of a decree for $20 and costs in favor of libellant by stipulation of the parties in the case of J. C. Murdy vs brig Orient. In the matter of J. McHenry, in bankruptcy, upon petition for adjudication, the case was tried and submitted.

STEAMERS TO SAIL.—The steamship Oriflamme is advertised to sail for San Francisco at 4 P. M. next Saturday. The Gussie Telfair is advertised to sail for Seattle, San Juan, Nanaimo and Sitka on Friday at 4 o'clock P. M.

AMUSEMENTS.

ORO FINO THEATER.—The drama of "The Creole," was repeated last night to a rather small house. The audience, however, received it with more warmth than usual in a thin house. To-night the tragedy of "The Robbers of the Bohemian Forest" will be repeated, by special request.

FREE LECTURE.—Mrs. A. J. Duniway will deliver a free lecture at Nonpareil Hall, Thursday evening, commencing at half-past 7 o'clock.

PASSENGERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—The following is a list of the passengers for San Francisco per steamer Ajax: Ben Holladay, Jr, Thomas Farrow and wife, Miss McNamara, P Beam and wife, Mrs Levy, J Leob, Mrs Smith, Mrs. Bridget Starr, E T Scovill, T E Whiteside, C H Bickwith, W M Thompson, I S Rosenbaum, H H Bigelow, O Bosley, J C Thomas, Miss H Cleary, C Sinder, Allen S Huling, J N Franklin, Mrs E Barrett, G W Davis, Mrs Frances Halt, Joseph Baker and son, J A Warner, J B Roberts, S A Strauss, Colonel A G Enos, E W Wilson, E Pomeroy, John B Harris, F Pothers, T C Kenyon, J R Dickens, C L Atkinson;—Wong Wai, Chio Ioaw, Chong Jaw (Chinamen,) Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger, and 25 in the steerage.

ENCAMPMENT OFFICERS.—The officers of Ellison Encampment No. 1, I. O. O. F., were installed last evening by Deputy G. P., Ezra St. John, as follows: Elective officers—Joseph Buchman, C. P.; J. S. Kidder, H. P.; C. W. Parrish, S. W.; J. H. Lyon, Scribe; C. Hegele, Treasurer. Appointed officers—J. W. Whalley, J. W.; G. B. Henry, O. S.; J. F. Johnson, I. S.; A. J. Marshall, Guide; B. A FIZZLE.—We learn that the stockholders of the Columbia Steamboat Transportation Co. were to have met on Monday to organize. Only two men, however, got together, and the meeting was a fizzle. It is thought the enterprise will now be abandoned altogether.

BOOK SALE.—Mr. A. B. Richardson will hold a book sale at 10 o'clock A. M. to-day. The books are a much better lot than has been offered at auction for a long time in this city.

DUE.—The steamship Oriflamme is expected to arrive to-day, as it is supposed she left San Francisco last Saturday.

TESTIMONIALS.

We the undersigned having been the recipients of the services of Mrs. M. O. White in teaching the science of Music on the Pianoforte, take pleasure in giving a hearty Testimonial that we have employed her in our families as a teacher of her "New Method of Instruction," and that it has proven superior to any method we have ever known. And that although the first cost may be a trifle greater than some others, we believe it to be in the aggregate much cheaper, beside being a great economy in point of time. We therefore, take pleasure in recommending her to the patronage of all who may be desirous of obtaining a musical education, as a very superior instructor.

To those who desire to know more about it before increasing any expense, we give a cordial invitation to call at our house and interview her pupils.

For reference see advertisement.

EAST PORTLAND, Jan. 3, 1872.

MRS. M. O. WHITE—Respected Madam—Having heard of your System of teaching the Pianoforte, known as the Robins' American Method, and having been present a few days since, at the exercises of one of your pupils, Miss Lane, of East Portland. I was much surprised and exceedingly gratified, at the perfect performance of the most difficult pieces, (such as Gutterhalk Bango, etc) and this after the short term of six months tuition.

Allow me to express my approbation of your System of your Instruction, and with my best wishes for your success allow me to subscribe myself,

Yours Respectfully,
TH. PARROT, Prof. of Music,
ja4d1m and Leader of the East Portland Band.

Winter-Proof Systems.

Thick boots and flannels are necessary at this season, but the human frame requires something more than these to render it winter-proof. The inner man, as well as the outer surface of the body, must be protected. The raw, moist, chilly winds which prevail at this season transpierce the warmest clothing, and are apt to effect the health unfavorably, both through the pores and the respiratory organs. The surest way to avert the evil is to strengthen the internal machine, and thus enable it to repel the devitalizing influence of unwholesome weather. Enrich the blood, gently stimulate the circulation, regulate the bowels, invigorate the stomach, tone the liver, and brace the nerves with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and no condition of the atmosphere, however inclement, no variation of the barometer or thermometer, however sudden, will have power to disorder the system thus fortified in advance, and put in perfect working order. Damp and cold, acting upon a sensitive or feeble organization, may produce consumption, diptheria, neuralgia, rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, low nervous fever, or intermittent fever; the importance of rendering the system impervious to these two destructive elements is therefore obvious. Persons in delicate health, or who are at all liable to be injuriously affected by atmospheric influences, should take the Bitters daily throughout the winter and spring. In this way dangerous diseases may be warded off, and a condition of perfect health preserved by individuals of comparatively feeble physique, while those more robust, who scoff at precautions, are suffering the penalty of their recklessness in hospitals and sick rooms.

Organized on a firm financial foundation, with its Capital FULLY PAID UP IN CASH, its large Assets safely invested, and pledged for the sole protection of those holding its indemnity against LOSS BY FIRE.

The PHOENIX INSURANCE CO. of Hartford, has for many years faithfully prosecuted a Fire Insurance Business successfully and well, encountering obstacles and crumbling them, meeting emergencies and proving equal to them, moving vigorously forward in its noble work "with malice to none and charity to all," building up where the Fire Fiend viciously destroys, and encouraging enterprise by substantially guarding it.

The losses of the "OLD PHOENIX" in the great Chicago Conflagration and which are now being adjusted and paid, will only absorb about 50 per cent. of the SURPLUS, leaving the Capital unimpaired, with a Surplus of Half a Million Dollars.

A Swamp Land Epic.

He and his Cayuse, wet and weary,
Jogged on draggled and forlorn,
And the rain it drizzled dreary
A Webfoot mist since early dawn.
The prairie it was monstrous sloppy,
But this chap he waded through,
With his hair a hanging moppy
And his soldier coat looked blue.

This cuss was a Swamp Land Jobber,
Out a looking up a show
For to make his 'ternal fortune
In the Long Tom overflow.
Careful like, he took the bearings,
East and west and south and north,
And he got to work comparing
What such Swamp Lands must be worth.
And he loosened up his weskit
For to give his feelings vent,
And concluded for to risk it,
Did this precious Swamp Land Gent.

On the prairie stood a dwelling,
Which was overflowed around,
So that Ocean wide and swelling
Warn't no wetter than that ground.
This a man from Pike had spotted
In the year of '49;
There in happy hour he squatted,
Raising pigs and children fine.

Said the traveler with misgiving,
"Sure as I'm alive to-day,
Here's a feller what's a living,
With his precious family,
A occupying of a portion
Of the Swamp Land overflow,
With—the thieving cuss—no notion
For to give the Ring a show,
But in this ere land of promise,
I shall stake my Cayuse out,
For this valley of Long Tom is
Just as Swampy as git out."

But right while he sot a plotting
On the back of his Cayuse,
The very man he was a spotting
Waded out to hear the news,
And he heard him speculating
All about the Ring and such,
And he spoiled his meditating
By the sudden way of—"Which!"
And by slack of factory trousers,
And by collar of his coat;
He was lifted off that Cayuse
With a tight grip at his throat,
And the squatter did upend him
Head down in that Long Tom Water,
In a way that must have drowned him,
Though I swan it hadn't orter.

And I spose that Ring is waiting
For that Ringist to return,
Soil spin this little story,
Thinking else, they'll never learn
What befell the Swamp Land Jobber
Sent to prospect up Long Tom.
Who, I guess, was drownded, rather,
In the way you've just heard from.

Salem Statesman.

State Rights and Centralism.

[From the N. Y. Independent.]

One of the heresies of the old secession party, and, to a very considerable extent, of the present Democratic party, consists in the assumption that the States which form integral parts of the Union possess, as States, the attributes of sovereignty. Nullifiers and secessionists hence claimed that, since the Union was nothing but a league or compact between sovereign and independent States, its continuance depended on the pleasure of each State, judging for itself, irrespectively of all the others. The trial of this claim by the recent rebellion has settled the question—at least, for many years to come—that the Constitution of the United States is not a compact between independent States, but a form of government, created by the whole people, acting in their collective capacity, and binding upon all; and hence that secession can only be accomplished by successful revolution. This doctrine, laid down by Daniel Webster, in his memorable reply to Hayne—the American people have reduced to an established fact amid the thunder and smoke of battle.

The Constitution of the United States expressly declares itself, and all the laws enacted in pursuance of its provisions, to be "the supreme law of the land." In the legislative, judicial, and executive departments of the Government, with the powers thereunto annexed, it provides all the requisite machinery for carrying its own principles into action, and enabling it to enforce its own claims. It nowhere implies that there is or can be any other government or political organization invested with rights inconsistent with those which are granted to the Government of the United States.

It hence follows that the true and only legitimate theory of State Rights is the one which this Constitution recognizes and endorses. From the moment in which it was adopted it became the interpreter and qualifier of State Rights; and such it will continue to be so long as it shall remain in force. The act of adoption was the act of the whole people, defining themselves, not as so many separate and independent States, but as "the people of the United States," and declaring what powers should be possessed by the General Government, and what rights and powers should be left to the respective States. The States at once had their sphere and jurisdiction definitely fixed; and every State which has since been incorporated into the Union is not only the political product of the Government, but is assigned to the same sphere as the original thirteen States. They all exist as political communities, with their rights for the purpose of local government, and with limitations of rights; and what these rights and limitations are we learn from the National Constitution.

The tenth article of the amendments to the Constitution expressly says: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively or to the people." By the very terms of this article we have two classes of powers excluded from State Rights, and, secondly, those prohibited to the States. All the rights left after these exclusions, are "reserved to the States respectively, or to the people;" and, besides these, they have no rights, and can have none under the Constitution of the United States, without coming into direct conflict with its provisions. What, moreover, was true when the Constitution was first adopted remains true under all the modifications or amendments of this instrument which the people, acting in the way provided for, shall see fit to make. It is in their power to enlarge or diminish the sphere of State Rights, either by changing the powers delegated to the General Government, or by altering the prohibitions in respect to the powers of the respective States. The great charter of these rights is subject to any modification which the requisite majority may choose to impose. The people are not so bound by their own Constitution that they cannot alter it.

The first limitation imposed upon State Rights is supplied by the legislative, judicial, and executive powers "delegated to the United States." The States do not hold and cannot exercise any of these powers concurrently with the General Government. They are expressly granted to the one and denied to the other. They make the United States a nation, and deprive the States of the characteristic attributes of sovereignty. The General Government, for example, can declare war and make peace; but the States cannot. The former can be represented in foreign courts, while the latter have no such right. When we have ascertained what are the powers of the United States, as defined by the Constitution, we have fixed a line over which State Rights can never extend. Let it be remembered, too, that every Government must be the supreme and final interpreter of its own powers, and equally possess the right to enforce its own interpretation. On this question the States have no power, and cannot have any, without undermining the very foundations of the National Government.

The other limitation of State Rights is derived from specific prohibitions, as when the Constitution forbids the States to enter into any treaty alliance, or confederation, to grant letters of marque and reprisal, to coin money, to emit bills of credit, or enact any law impairing the obligation of contracts. The whole people of the United States, when they determined to form a General Government, and recognized the fact that within this Government there were and would be distinct political communities, called States, also determined to place these communities under certain constitutional restraints; and what these restraints forbid them to do they have no power to do.

Let it be added that the General Government does not act upon the people through the States as its ministers, but directly through its own officers; and we see at once the supremacy which it holds over all the people, as the great national center, and, by consequence, the subordinate position of the States. The States may enact laws of a purely domestic and quasi-municipal nature, and supply the agency for their execution; but they have no power except that which is simply local, and even there no power inconsistent with the supreme authority lodged in the General Government. A law of a State that should contradict a law of Congress would be ipso facto null and void, and it would be the duty of the Supreme Court of the United States so to decide, unless it should come to the conclusion that the Congressional law itself was unconstitutional. When Congress has legislated within the sphere of its powers, that fact is the end of all State Rights as against this legislation.

We thus find a vital principle of governmental centralism organized into the very structure of our political system, upon which our nationality depends, without which it can have no being, and against which the worshippers of State Rights, at the expense of the national idea, have always been contending. The Constitution itself is the source and the guaranty of this centralism; and upon it rests our unity as a people and our safety as a nation. Any theory of State Rights which conflict with it is not only unconstitutional upon its very face, but also the enemy of our national life. The clamor for State Rights against constitutional centralization, in which secessionists formerly indulged, and which forms no small part of the political capital of modern Democracy, is simply an insane attack upon the Constitution of the United States, and the greatest interests it was meant to guard. Alexander Hamilton was right when he said that the chief danger of this Government was not centralization, but disintegration. History has confirmed the truth of the sagacious remark. The terrible war through which the country has passed would not have done its work if it had not settled the question that the National Government is the sun of our political system. It is the central orb which keeps the States in their places, holds them together, regulates their intercourse with each other, guarantees their rights, and protects them from all foreign peril. To declaim against this centralism is to set up a fatal antagonism to our nationality as one people. The States have their rights within the limits of the Constitution; yet the great sheet-anchor of the public safety is to be found in the powers "delegated to the United States."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, Jan. 9th, 1872.

Gold in New York 109⅝.

Portland Legal Tender quotations 90½ buying; 91½ selling.

The steamer Ajax cleared to-day for San Francisco. She carries away about 900 tons of produce.

The bark Almatia arrived to-day. She will commence discharging immediately.

The ship Windward is discharging freight at McNott's wharf.

The steamer Oriflamme is due to-morrow night or Thursday morning, although she may be in to-night. She will bring dates to January 6th. Business for the week so far has been confined mostly to shipping produce. The demand from the interior for Groceries is limited with few goods going forward either by railroad or steamboat. The moderating weather reported East of the Cascades may result in navigation being resumed to the Dalles by Monday, and, if such proves the case, many goods will be forwarded to fill orders.

It is now announced beyond a doubt that the Alden Besse is chartered for China. She will take out 8,000 bbls Flour as the principal part of her cargo.

The very general attention that is being attracted to the breeding of blooded stock causes many to look forward to the time when Oregon will take her place as one of the leading States for raising fine stock as being near at hand. The great variety of climate to be found in our State, and the general security at any time of the year, together with the superior quality of the grass renders it peculiarly attractive to stock raisers, particularly to breeders of fine Merino Sheep. We have heard objections raised to breeding for Fine Wools on the score that our Woolen Factories are not purchasers of it to any great extent, and that the difference in the price of Merino Wools and common Wools is not sufficient to justify the breeding of Merino Sheep. As to the relative prices paid for fine, medium and common grades of Wool by our factories, we are not fully informed, so cannot say, but of this we are fully aware: Fine Merino Wools of a year's growth is sought for at high figures by the factories in California, and also by those in the Eastern States. Merino Wool weighs more than a fleece of any other quality, and in the markets East as also in California, commands from 2 to 5 cents per pound more. The expense of keeping Merino Sheep, after purchasing, is not any more than for other descriptions. If Wool growers will study the markets abroad they will at once perceive that the finer the Wool the higher the prices received. As to our Wool not being washed, that is in its favor, for the experience of one or two of the largest growers in California is that the difference in prices received does not pay for difference in weight and expense. But in Western Oregon the Wool grown is, owing to the continuous rain during winter, of superior lightness, healthiness and length to that grown in any State of the Union where the flocks are not washed. Western Oregon Merino, and also other qualities of Wools do not lose as heavily in weight in scouring at the factories as we have heard stated, but California Wools do. Mr. H. L. Davidson, in an article in the Willamette Farmer under date of January 6th, on the breeding of Merino Sheep for Wools, gives some very cogent reasons why our Wool growers should give more attention to breeding for fine Wools which should be read by all interested, as also one or two articles in some of the preceding numbers of the Farmer written by Mr. Smith of Roseburg, Umpqua Valley, upon the breeding of blooded stock. In the consideration of the subject of the breeding of Merino Sheep for fine Wools, writers in this State do not take into consideration that each year's consumption shows an increase in the United States. This is owing to the increased demand for fine fabrics consequent upon the growing wealth of the mechanics, farmers, and indeed all classes in the United States, and also that its consumption has largely increased for mixing purposes. Not only is Merino Wool used for mixing with inferior grades, but it is being more extensively used for mixing with Cotton in the manufacture of certain kinds of fabrics than heretofore.

From the circular of Messrs. Haugh, Balfour & Co., of Manchester, we extract the following regarding the market for Cotton Goods at latest mail advices from England, Dec. 1, 1871:

During the month of November we have seen some more activity than we were able to report in our last monthly circular, and our quotations are higher all round. At the same time, the activity and higher rates in our market has been more the result of a strong market in Liverpool than of any increased demand abroad. On the conviction that Cotton was tending upwards buyers in this market who were waiting for what they considered the lowest point in prices, have come in together, and the aggregate buying in this way has been sufficient to clear off the bulk of existing stocks and at the same time to put favorite makes under contract into January. There is now a pause again as sellers are raising their demands beyond what buyers are generally disposed to give. The advance in price during the month amounts to 1½d to 3d per piece on Shirtings, a like proportion on lighter goods and T Cloths, whilst prints and domestics remain pretty much where they were, which is a fair indication that the home trade has not been active. Yarns have advanced about ¼d all round for numbers under 60 and, higher numbers have advanced still more. Cotton is quite ½d per lb over the lowest point of the month, and fully ½d above our quotations on the 1st Nov. Prospects are more in favor of Cotton than we reported a month ago. The trade has been compelled to come in generally, as large buyers, during the last two weeks, and the export demand has been steady, although not up to the average of the preceding ten months. The general feeling here seems to be, that we are to see a crop in America, if not down to the lowest estimates that have been made of it, certainly a long way below the crop of last year, and that as we go on into next year, prices will follow Cotton, unless the demand from the East should be small and the prices there unremunerative, in which case, the remedy would still be looked to rather from "short time" than in lower prices for Cotton.

Produce Market.

WHEAT—In this morning's issue the types made us say 1875 when it should have been 1872, and made us quote the market at $2 55 ⅌ cental when it should have been $2 05. Hereafter we shall endeavor to have no mistakes of this character in our quotations so that they can be depended upon as being correct so far as we are able to learn. In absence of telegraphic advices and also advices by mail, shippers are not inclined to make purchases, though they are offering $2 05 ⅌ cental. The Ajax carries away 3,000 centals.

FLOUR—The steamer Ajax carries away the largest quantity sent to San Francisco by any one steamer since the Spring of 1871—about 6,000 bbls—most all being extra of our standard brands. The receipts from the interior continue on a liberal scale. We quote extra of standard brands at $7 ⅌ bbl; choice country brands, $6 75 ⅌ bbl; superfine and outside brands, $6@6 50.

HAY—Is in moderate receipt with demand light. Dealers continue to purchase baled Timothy at $35 ⅌ ton; other qualities $20@25.

EGGS—The market was ruling to-day at 65@67½ cts. ⅌ doz.

POULTRY—Hens and Roosters are in demand, dealers are offering to pay as high as $6 ⅌ doz. for choice fat; medium are bought at $5 ⅌ doz.

Liverpool wheat market telegraphed to-day at 12s 6d.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9, 4 P. M.—Flour—Exports for 1871 amount to 232,000 bbls, valued at $1,516,000. Market quiet, with prospective export demand for China and Central America. City brands as follows: superfine in sks, $6@6 25; extra, $7@7 25.

Wheat—During 1871 we exported 1,312,000 centals, valued at $3,179,000, against 4,216,000 valued at $7,814,000 in 1870. The late severe weather has checked arrivals and hence no lots are offering from wharf. Holders in city warehouses do not care to press sales for the moment. The market is, therefore quiet, and prices nominal at $2 20@2 35. Sale 2,000 sks choice, private.

Barley—Last year we shipped 120,000 centals; against 157,000 centals in 1870. Market nominal at $1 75@1 90 ⅌ 100 lbs.

Oats—Our exports for 1871 were only 7,800 sks, against 13,030 sks in 1870. In addition we shipped a large quantity to Oregon during the past year, an unusual feature, having heretofore been a large receiver from that State. Market quiet at $1 75@1 80.

Potatoes—Humboldt, 70@90c; Bodega and Petaluma, 60@75c.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from [illegible] absorbed into the system. Look at their [illegible] and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation they [illegible] suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it is too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure [illegible] without [illegible] mercury, or any injurious drugs. [illegible] who are afflicted [illegible] interested in the welfare of [illegible] many pretended doctors [illegible] publishing [illegible] curing all diseases in a few days [illegible] the public by using the names of [illegible] from European [illegible] be therefore careful and make strict inquiry [illegible] may fall into the hands of these [illegible].

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse, [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is [illegible] by the youth [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by [illegible] treatment: [illegible] Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confusion of ideas, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, [illegible] night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of it unsuccessfully by all of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are, [illegible] under any of these terrible maladies, should not fail [illegible] [illegible] disability, resting upon them, our delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a cure or [illegible] performance, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in a registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus certificates, [illegible] dupe the [illegible] some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are shoemakers, newspaper carriers, [illegible] office [illegible] etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid these is not to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trying any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
